

Rural Influence and Policy Officer (CL11)

Community Lincs has been supporting rural communities and voluntary groups across the county since 1927, through the provision of advice, training and funding that communities need to help them identify their own priorities and work out their own solutions. By working in partnership with communities and the agencies that provide services to them we believe we can help them to remain vibrant and sustainable into the future.

We now wish to appoint a Rural Influence and Policy Officer to support the delivery of our programme of support for rural communities across Lincolnshire.

18.5 hours per week, £23,000 pro-rata

Based at Community Lincs, The Old Mart, Church Lane, Sleaford. NG34 7DF.

The post holder will support the CEO and Operations Manager in delivering a rural influence function on behalf of the rural communities of Lincolnshire, through a programme of research, rural proofing and policy briefing. We are looking for someone with an understanding of rural issues, an analytical approach and the ability to help others understand strategic issues. If you feel you fit the bill please apply to us at the address shown below.
